Library Updates and Announcements from the Library Director, Liz Caputo

The 79th Annual Library Auction is still seeking a chairperson or individuals who are willing to be co-chairs. Are you an organized, community-oriented person who is passionate about volunteering? We're looking for you! You would be heading a group of dedicated volunteer committee members who have helped run this event for many years. This is the library's biggest fundraiser and we are so grateful for all of the volunteers who contribute their time, energy and ideas to make every auction a success. Please call the library at 570-675-1182 if you have questions or would like to become the 2025 auction chairperson.

In addition to a chairperson, we are looking for others to volunteer at the auction in various positions such as selling raffle tickets, assisting on the stage, sorting items or helping with setup and cleanup. If any of these sound like the job for you, please contact the library today.

Beginning in February the Back Mountain Memorial Library website will have a new look! We've redone the website to be sleeker, more modern and easier to navigate. The new website will also have digital bookshelves so you can see what new releases have recently come to the library. We will also include a monthly calendar, online donation options and more. The website and social media accounts are the fastest way to keep up with what the library currently has going on!

The library has also started to send out a monthly digital newsletter. If you aren't already receiving it, stop by the library and give us your email address to be added. The newsletter includes monthly programs, updates and a listing of our staff picks.

Finally, we welcomed two new staff members in January - Jess and Jennifer. We are excited to have them join the Back Mountain Library team!

Suggested Reading List

The Let Them Theory: A Life-Changing Tool That Millions of People Can't Stop Talking About by Mel Robbins

"Bestselling author, podcaster and motivational speaker Mel Robbins returns with her most insightful and life-changing book yet. From helping you build friendships to break free from insecurities to finding joy and success in everyday life, The Let Them Theory is a liberating read, perfect for fans of Brené Brown and Glennon Doyle."

All the Water in the World by Eiren Caffall

"All the Water in the World is told in the voice of a girl gifted with a deep feeling for water. In the years after the glaciers melt, Nonie, her older sister and her parents and their researcher friends have stayed behind in an almost deserted New York City, creating a settlement on the roof of the American Museum of Natural History. The rule: Take from the exhibits only in dire need. They hunt and grow their food in Central Park as they work to save the collections of human history and science. When a superstorm breaches the city's flood walls, Nonie and her family must escape north on the Hudson. They carry with them a book that holds their records of the lost collections. Racing on the swollen river towards what may be safety, they encounter communities that have adapted in very different and sometimes frightening ways to the new reality. But they are determined to find a way to make a new world that honors all they've saved."

Black Woods, Blue Sky by Eowyn Ivey

Birdie's keeping it together; of course she is. So, she's a little hungover, sometimes, and she has to bring her daughter, Emaleen, to her job waiting tables at an Alaskan roadside lodge, but she's getting by as a single mother in a tough town.

Arthur Neilsen, a soft-spoken and scarred recluse who appears in town only at the change of seasons, brings Emaleen back to safety when she gets lost in the woods. Most people avoid him, but to Birdie, he represents everything she's ever longed for. Against the warnings of those who care about them, Birdie and Emaleen move to his isolated cabin in the mountains, on the far side of the Wolverine River.

It's just the three of them in the vast black woods, far from roads, telephones, electricity, and outside contact, but Birdie believes she has come prepared. At first, it's idyllic and she can picture a happily ever after: Together they catch salmon, pick berries, and climb mountains so tall it's as if they could touch the bright blue sky. But soon Birdie discovers that Arthur is something much more mysterious and dangerous than she could have ever imagined, and that like the Alaska wilderness, a fairy tale can be as dark as it is beautiful.

CHILDREN'S AND YOUNG ADULT NEWS SPRING & SUMMER 2025

Summer Reading

"Color Our World" is the slogan for this summer's reading program!

The theme is art and creativity. Children and teens can enjoy a reading challenge, story times, a variety of special programs, prizes, games, and a final celebration! The summer reading fun begins in early June so visit the Library to discover all the options available.

Neighborhood Forest

Time to sign up for free trees! BMML will partner again with Neighborhood Forest to distribute free trees to celebrate Earth Day. Last year was the second year BMML participated in this program and distributed a total of 96 White Pines. The tree species will be revealed closer to the distribution, which will be around Earth Day (April 22, 2025). The trees can be picked up at the library. Deadline to sign up is March 15, 2025. To receive a free tree for your child(ren) go to the BMML Children's Room Facebook post and click on the link. Or visit neighborhoodforest.org and select the BMML under the institution search.

PA One Book, Every Young Child

The 2025 PA One Book selection is Arlo Draws an Octopus by Lori Mortensen. This special story hour designed for children 6 years old and younger will engage participants in activities and conversation around the selection. The BMML will visit local organizations with the program. A main event will be held at the library in late spring that will be open to the public.

Emerging Readers:

A new section in the Children's Wing was added! The Emerging Readers section contains the basics of learning sounds, word formation, and how to recognize sight words. The new section consists of books, games, and kits which will help children learn to read. These items can be used in the library or checked out to take home.

25¢ Books

Find a treasure to take home for only a quarter! Slightly read children's and teen books are on sale during all library hours at the entrance to the Children's Wing. Space has been expanded (again!) to include more variety and reading levels.

Donations are welcome; if you have children's books that need a new home, bring them to us. Funds raised are used to support summer reading and other programming.

Tours/Field Trips

You are cordially invited to visit the library. Bring your class, daycare, family, or other children's group to see all your local library has to offer. Tours and activities can be customized for group ages, size, and interests. Contact the Children's Room to set a date.

Book Boxes

Let us bring books to your organization that serves children. The library will curate boxes of 15 – 25 books to arrive at your location every 3 weeks to a month. Discover new books and old classics. Have your children experience more books than ever before. Contact the Children's Room to find out how to get started.

Children's Room information can be found on backmountainlibrary.org or on Facebook.

The Friends of the Back Mountain Memorial Library – Our Mission Statement

The Friends Steering Committee actively provides financial and volunteer support to enhance our library's extensive resources and successful programs. Enthusiasm and willingness to participate are the only qualifications needed to join this committee.

79th Annual Library Auction!

July 10, 11, 12 and 13 (Rain date – July 14)

Plans for the 79th Annual Library Auction are still in the works. The auction committee continues to seek a chair or several people who would like to co-chair this year's event. If you, or someone you know, are willing to lead the coordination of volunteers already in place, we greatly welcome your time and talent! Please contact the library as soon as possible at 570-675-1182.

Antiques and New Goods will be offered on the auction block, and the favorite tents make a return appearance. The ever-popular Basket Raffle will be set up in the library, and there will be some new additions as well as some old favorites included in the Children's Bid-Time Stories and vendor offerings.

The auction serves as the cornerstone of support to keep the library viable for our Back Mountain community. With the help of many volunteers, families, friends, neighbors and local businesses, the auction committee is hoping this main-stay summer event will live up to the success of all its previous years. The library is depending on its plethora of volunteers and supporters to keep the tradition going!

Annual Author Luncheon – Sunday, April 27th

Jaclyn Maria Fowler to speak at the Back Mountain Library Author Luncheon

The Friends of the Back Mountain Memorial Library will host their 35th Annual Luncheon with a Special Author on Sunday, April 27th at AppleTree Terrace, Newberry Estate, Dallas. The guest speaker will be Jaclyn Maria Fowler, a native of Schuylkill County who now resides in Wilkes-Barre.

A storyteller at heart, Jackie Fowler comes from a long line of raconteurs and wanderers who all trace their lineage back to Ireland. She, too, travels to write and writes to travel, and following in the footsteps of her ancestors, tells stories from Celtic myth and Irish history. To pay for her obsessions, she works as Chair of the English Department at American Public University System. Jackie will highlight her book, Jack: The Almost True Story of the Molly Maguires, a novel she wrote for her dad and namesake, Jack, about an historical event close to home.

Jackie is also author of It is Myself that I Remake, and No One Radiates Love Alone. Her new historical novel, Today's Rain, Tomorrow's Whiskey, will be out in late 2025. She has had several award-winning short stories published, including "The Other Day I Found a Penny in the Street" in the 2020 Colorado Book Award winning anthology, "Women of the Desert" in the Wanderlust Best of '20 anthology, and "In the Summer Before Third Grade" in the 2022 Fish Anthology.

The doors will open at 11:30 a.m. and the buffet luncheon will be served at 12:00 p.m. All proceeds from the luncheon and the basket raffle will benefit the library. Tables of eight are encouraged and may be reserved. Checks in the amount of $30.00 should be made payable to the Back Mountain Memorial Library and mailed to 96 Huntsville Road, Dallas, PA 18612. Also, you can obtain and complete a registration form and leave it with your payment at the library desk. Reservations deadline is Tuesday, April 22.
